

MAUI CHAMBER OF COMMERCE CONSIDERS TOURIST PROMOTION

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WAILUKU, Feb. 12.—Maui Chamber of Commerce held the monthly meeting at the Maui hotel yesterday noon. Manager W. H. Field served a very appetizing luncheon which about 35 members of the chamber enjoyed. The business meeting of the chamber followed immediately.

A communication was read from Palmer Woods concerning the possibility of having himself assist Maui in securing tourists. The idea pleased the members of the chamber that one man should look after the interests of those seeking to visit Maui, and the possibility of combining the care of those who desired to visit Maui and Hawaii at the same time seemed like a feasible proposition of Mr. Woods. It was decided to let the matter rest until the next meeting of the chamber, at which time the proposition would be thoroughly discussed.

A letter from the Promotion Committee asking for information as to rates to Haleakala set the ball rolling for considerable argument. The facts were brought out that there was no one on Maui at all responsible for giving out information concerning the tourist inquiries and, after much discussion in which a large number of the members of the chamber took part, it was finally voted to ask a special committee of three to look up rates and be able to make a full report at the next meeting. C. D. Lufkin was appointed chairman of the new committee, who, with two other members, will investigate rates and prepare somewhat of a schedule that will answer the questions that are being constantly asked concerning visits to Maui.

There were some few other matters of business and then the committee appointed for the revision of the by-laws of the Maui Chamber of Commerce submitted a complete report. That committee consisting of H. B. Penhallow, J. J. Walsh and D. H. Case had done very careful work and passed in to the chamber a complete set of their suggestions for the new by-laws.

The important changes and additions to the old rules are in regard to membership in the chamber, which carefully safeguards eligibility, election and withdrawals. Heretofore considerable confusion had arisen concerning some of the questions concerning membership. Also additions are placed in the by-laws concerning delinquents in the payment of dues.

A committee of three on promotion has been added to the other standing committees of the chamber. These changes and additions as submitted will be voted upon at the March meeting of the chamber. George Webb of the All-Star Players' Company that has been visiting Maui was called upon for a few remarks. Mr. Webb spoke very enthusiastically concerning the support Maui had given him a very good time. He then urged the necessity of greater work along the lines of promotion and said that Maui should have a great many more visitors in the future than she has had in the past.

SHIP PURCHASE FIGHT DRAGGING ITS WEARY WAY

Indications Point to Fight to Bitter End; Time Limit May Kill Measure

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 17.— Democratic leaders of both senate and house agreed last night that the administration's Ship Purchase Bill either will be before the President for his signature before the end of this week or will be dead for the session.

The fight against the bill is being kept up unceasingly, but one side or the other must stop soon. Either the fillibuster will end or the Democratic leaders will agree to drop the measure in order to complete the absolutely essential appropriation bills before the session lapses through time limitation.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo yesterday made public a letter he had written Senator Fletcher, in which he denies the truth of the intimations that have been made that he has entered into negotiations for the purchase of merchant ships of any of the belligerent nations for operation under the proposed legislation.

As an amendment to the Week's Naval Auxiliary Bill, the Ship Purchase Bill was passed in the house yesterday by a vote of 215 to 121.

WOLVES RAVAGE QUAKE DISTRICT AND KILL MANY

ROME, Italy, Feb. 17.—Continued horrors come to the stricken district in Central Italy in and around Avezanno, where there have been fresh earthquakes yesterday and where wolves, driven down from the mountains by the heavy snows, are becoming so bold that armed sentries in the earthquake districts have been attacked.

The automobiles carrying relief supplies through this section have been followed by the wolves, hunting in packs. A number of unarmed persons have been killed and devoured by these ravenous animals.
The valleys in many sections are flooded from the melting snows and the heavy rains.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver, bowels —tastes delicious.

Look back at your childhood days.
Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics.
How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different.
Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do.
The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—advertisement.

DAVID BISPHAM PLEADS FOR MORE MUSIC IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

It is remarkable how David Bispham not only keeps the esteem of the public, but how it has grown into an affection that is particularly dear to the heart of every artist.

Mr. Bispham has a growing belief in the university of music, and particularly of song, which is such a personal thing that it brings a singer closer to his fellows than instrumental music possibly can. He declares: "Music is a fundamental thing in human nature, and that it should be taught sensibly in all homes and in all schools and colleges; not that everybody should be made a professional performer—heaven forbid! But that the people at large should be brought up with this beautiful thing, and know about it and its makers and executants, and be able to sing and play for themselves in an intelligent manner. In this way—if educators could but realize it—great good would result to the world, as great, if not greater, than by the study of many things which are in the list of requirements for every person who is educated at all. Music is a necessity, and should be so considered from a scientific standpoint.

"The time has happily passed when to enjoy music was looked upon askance by the religiously minded. The study of music should be undertaken as carefully as that of literature, science, history, art or languages. Singing especially, and the correct use of our English language in speech and song, should be insisted upon in all schools, from the primary grades, public and private, to high schools and colleges."

Mr. Bispham, in the short remarks to his audiences with which he invariably opens his recitals, does not hesitate to promulgate this doctrine, and his rubbing in of the idea is taking hold of people everywhere.

Mr. Bispham's season has so far been a most successful one of about 40 appearances already, in 30 places, among which there have been immediate re-engagements; ten of his engagements were under the auspices of the music departments of educational institutions, such as Yale, Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania, and yet Mr. Bispham finds that the boards of governors of too many schools and colleges are not yet awake to the supreme value of music when sensibly and scientifically taught.

Mr. Bispham's appearances in his native Philadelphia this season have numbered four, and his seventh annual concert at the Harvard Club on Sunday, January 17, brings the total of his appearances in Greater New York to ten. On this occasion the program was entirely devoted to the songs of American composers.—New York Exchange.
